WINDY CITY ROLLERS HISTORY

SEPTEMBER 16, 2004
First WCR recruitment event is held at Cork Loungo in Chicago.

FEBRUARY 2005
The Dust Devil Invitational, the first-ever all-women's roller derby tournament is hosted in Tucson, AZ. The WCR All-Stars, having skated for one season on a smaller track and minimal competitive training, finished 18 out of 20.

JUNE 2005
To accommodate competitive gameplay, WCR began skating at Cicero Stadium in Cicero, and shifted focus to fully regulated roller derby.

NOVEMBER 2005
The Fury win the Ivy King Cup for the second season in a row.

JUNE 2005
WCR debuts for the Chicago public at the Congress Theatre. To accommodate the venue, the WCR skated on an abnormally small track. More than 3,000 fans attended the debut game, which included occasional fighting.

AUGUST 2005
Several Windy City Rollers meet roller derby legend Ivy King at the Roller Derby Hall of Fame Induction. Her tenacity, contribution to the sport, and love of dirty jokes led the league to name the championship cup after her.

NOVEMBER 2005
The Fury become the inaugural Ivy King Cup winners. Ask a WCR skater about the first IKC on DVD!

JANUARY 2006
WCR's fourth home season begins.

JUNE 2006
Hell's Belles win the Ivy King cup for the first time.

OCTOBER 2006
WCR finishes second behind New York's Gotham Girls Roller Derby in the WFTDA Eastern Conference Finals.

WCR holds its inaugural interleague bout at UIC Pavilion in Chicago versus the Carolina RollerGirls. WCR wins 191-115.

NOVEMBER 2006
WFTDA's National Tournament is held in Portland, OR. WCR finishes second behind Gotham Girls.

FEBRUARY 2007
The second annual Dust Devil is held in Tucson, AZ. WCR did not advance out of the initial "round robin" bracket.

APRIL 2007
WCR's third home season begins.

AUGUST 2007
At the Eastern Regionals Playoffs in Columbus, OH, WCR placed second in the tournament behind New York's Gotham Girls Roller Derby -- a huge leap in skill since the previous year.

OCTOBER 2007
WCR places seventh at the 2007 WFTDA National Tournament.

NOVEMBER 2007
The Double Crossers win the Ivy King Cup for the first time.

JANUARY 2010
WCR's sixth season begins at UIC Pavilion.

JUNE 2010
The Fury win the Ivy King Cup for the third time.

SEPTEMBER 2010
WCR places first in the North Central Regional tournament in Green Bay, WI.

NOVEMBER 2010
WCR hosts its first interleague tournament at UIC Pavilion; the 2010 WFTDA Championship, Uproar On the Lakeshore. WCR All-Stars lost in the first round to the Oly Rollers of Olympia, WA.

JANUARY 2009
WCR's inaugural home bout is held at UIC Pavilion and marks the beginning of WCR's fifth season.

JUNE 2009
The Manic Attackers win the Ivy King cup for the first time.

NOVEMBER 2009
Following a bye at the WFTDA National Tournament in Philadelphia, the WCR All-Stars fall to Denver Roller Dolls in the second round of play.

JANUARY 2012
With a revamped home season format, WCR opens its eighth season at UIC Pavilion.

JUNE 2012
The Manic Attackers win the Ivy King Cup for the second time.

SEPTEMBER 2012
The WCR All-Stars place first in the North Central Regional Playoffs, extending their undefeated streak in the region.

NOVEMBER 2012
The WCR All-Stars receive a bye in the first round of the WFTDA Championships, but lose to the Denver Roller Dolls in the second round.

JANUARY 2011
WCR's seventh season begins.

JUNE 2011
The Fury win the Ivy King Cup for the fourth time.

OCTOBER 2011
WCR All-Stars take the North Central championships for the third consecutive year, making them the only WFTDA team to retain a regional title for that long.

NOVEMBER 2011
WCR All-Stars fall to the Kansas City Roller Warriors in the second round of the WFTDA Championships in Broomfield, CO.

JANUARY 2013
WCR opens its ninth season at UIC Pavilion.

APRIL 2013
The WCR All-Stars journey to their first-ever international trip to play in London, England.

JUNE 2013
The Fury win the Ivy King Cup for the fifth time.

SEPTEMBER 2013
With revamped divisions and playoffs seedings, the WCR All-Stars place first in their playoff in Asheville, NC, to advance to the WFTDA Championships.

NOVEMBER 2013
The All-Stars compete in the WFTDA Championships in Milwaukee. The team defeat the Philly Roller Girls in the first round, but fall to Bay Area Derby Girls in the second round.

JANUARY 2014
WCR opens its tenth season at UIC Pavilion, marking a decade of modern roller derby in Chicago.

MAY 2014
The Double Crossers win the tenth Ivy King Cup ending years of coming in last.
